Eligibility

The Elischer Foundation supports individuals who have already demonstrated they have a talent for fundraising and have the drive and ambition to be the next generation of sector leaders.

It is expected that mentees will join the programme at a stage where they can demonstrate continuing success and achievement and are most likely already leading one or more areas of fundraising. It is likely that successful applicants will have more than four years' experience. You will likely be a 'Head of', 'Deputy Director' or in a management role and are looking to further develop your leadership skillset. This programme is most suited to those who want to build on existing success and knowledge to accelerate a career towards executive or organisational leadership.

There are no geographical restrictions (although we operate in a UK-time zone) and support is provided free of fees for the programme participants.

Applicants must be committed to developing a career in fundraising.

Prior to submitting your application, please ensure you have read and understood the accompanying Guidelines which can be found here
